Our Parish's Mission

We, St. Scholastica Catholic Parish, follow Jesus Christ and His Church in obedience to His command:
"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

(Mt 28:19)

Grounded in the eternal love of the Most Holy Trinity, we evangelize the people of Erie Colorado, revealing the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven!

Welcome! At St. Scholastica, we welcome you and pray for you and your family as we deepen our encounter with God, through the mystery of the Body of Christ! If you are new to our parish and would like to register

Pastor's Corner

From a book entitled: "The Wisdom of the desert" I found this quote on p 23.

The Hidden Treasure

The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.
—St. Matt., 13:44.

He that findeth Jesus findeth a good treasure, yea, a Good above all good.
—The Imitation of Christ, ii. 8.

The desire of knowing the Lord is often the first impulse of the religious life. The human soul repeats the request of the Greeks who were came to Philip, "Sir, we would see Jesus." The desire—it is only in such paradoxes that religious experience seems able to express itself—already witnesses to the fact that the soul, which feels it, has seen Jesus. The contradiction may he stated nakedly without the fear of making discord in the Christian consciousness. He who has seen Jesus once, still sees Him, and therefore must desire to see Him. As the clearness of the vision varies, so does the intensity of the desire.

As our country celebrates our Independence Day there will be much said about freedom and expressions of what individuals desire. We have an opportunity to show our desire to see God! To see God... To encounter God in a clear way, and grow in the desire to see God face to face, to experience the freedom of the children of God, and be free to serve God and His Church. Bring the scriptures to your parties, proclaim God's words, and then let the fireworks begin!

Fr. Rob

Please remember in your prayers those who are sick, those serving in the military, military veterans and those who have experienced the death of a loved one.

The Rosary is prayed on Sundays at 7:45 am before Mass; also at 10:45 am. Mother Mary, we are thankful that you intercede on our behalf.
